

UI GreenMetric Questionnaire

University: Uzbekistan State World Languages University
Country: Uzbekistan
Web Address: <https://uzswlu.uz/en>

[6] Education and Research (ED)

[6.9] Number of activities organized by student organizations related to sustainability per year

In connection with the designation of March 30 as Waste-Free Day by the Tashkent Department of Ecology, Environmental Protection, and Climate Change, a clean-up campaign was organized to remove litter collected along the roadsides. This initiative aimed to improve the environment and raise ecological awareness among the public.

<https://uzswlu.uz/news/hashar>
<https://t.me/UzSWLU/17064>

On September 16, in honor of World Cleanup Day, we would like to share an inspiring story with you. In collaboration with the "Ekolog" public association, the Tashkent City Department of Ecology, and the Faculty of Media and Communications of the Uzbek State University of World Languages, a plogging event was organized on Qatortol Street. From students to nature lovers and socially responsible eco-volunteers, participants became true eco-heroes today, setting an example for everyone on the street. The participants collected a significant amount of waste, contributing to the cleanliness of one of the busiest streets in our city, Qatortol Street.

<https://t.me/ekologuz/16972>

<https://uzswlu.uz/news/bugun-butunjahon-tozalik-kuni-1694869249>

As part of the "Youth Shoulder" project organized in Germany, on July 23, 2024, Dilshoda Alisherova, a fourth-year student from the Faculty of English Language and Literature at the Uzbek State University of World Languages, participated in an 8-day training session in the city of Weimar, Germany.

Out of participants from all over Uzbekistan, 25 were selected for the training, during which they received lessons from international trainers in Russian and English on the topics of "Ecology," "Human Rights," and "Volunteering."

The project consists of three stages. In the first stage, 50 participants were selected in Tashkent and involved in training sessions held across the country. In the second stage, 25 of those 50 participants were chosen to attend the training in Germany.

Participation in the program was free of charge, and all expenses related to the training in Germany were fully covered by the organizers.

<https://t.me/UzSWLU/21804>

On May 21, an event under the name "Save the Planet" was held at the Faculty of Translation of UzSWLU.

The event was organized in cooperation with professors and students of the Department of English Translation Theory of the Faculty of Translation within the framework of the target indicators of creating sustainable infrastructure, supporting comprehensive and sustainable industrialization and innovation, ensuring the openness, safety and ecological stability of cities and settlements. .

Different interesting terms and songs gave the participants of the program an upbeat mood. At the end, the winners were awarded with certificates and souvenirs.

<https://uzswlu.uz/en/news/the-event-was-held-under-the-name-save-the-planet-1716453332>

<https://t.me/UzSWLU/20100>

As part of the "World Youth Festival", a number of spiritual and educational events were organized on June 30 at the Uzbekistan State University of World Languages.

In particular, a football competition was held under the auspices of the Sports Department and the University Youth Union.

<https://uzswlu.uz/en/news/a-spiritual-and-educational-event-was-organized-1720419214>

These examples demonstrate the diverse ways in which student organizations like "Yoshlar Ittifoqi" can actively promote sustainable development through a range of events related to sports, well-being, and culture. By incorporating sustainability principles into these activities, students can raise awareness, inspire change, and contribute to a more sustainable future both on campus and in the wider community.