Description:

- A garden with a gazebo is a favorite place for students to discuss and master acquired. this place has an atmosphere of unity of like-minded people, which contributes to the development of the collective qualities of everyone. in the evenings, students from different departments of the university gather here to organize stand-up performances, performances on various hobbies, art projects and poetry evenings. all conditions are provided for the student’s self-development on the territory of the university. the infrastructure of resources for living is properly maintained. The university's energy resources are supported by solar panels installed in each roof of the buildings. Thus, the university is 80% independent(1447361 kW) of the city's energy supply.

- The pond is loved by readers and, of course, those who love silence and unity with nature. This corner of the university was chosen not only by students but also by various fauna of nature. If songbirds enjoy the cool weather here during the day, in the evening you can enjoy the croaking of frogs while looking at the moonlit sky. There is an atmosphere of absolute calm here that helps you find harmony with yourself.
- The nursery of garden plants is an inspiration for every student and not only. this is a forge of beauty. here, experienced gardeners grow flowers and ornamental plants all year round. The university territory always shines with purity and flowers, even in winter. Flowers add bright and joyful notes to students' lives. Every student understands the priority of ecology and participates in every environmental protection and landscaping event not only at the university but also in the city. days are held to clean up and improve the city in which university students are directly involved
- The animal shelter has given many animals a chance to find love, home and peace. Our kind volunteers contributed to this. The world lives and prospers where there is kindness. Through their efforts, every day the world is filled with love and hope is born in the little hearts of our little friends.
