

REPORT ON SUPPORT SCHEMES FOR LOW-INCOME STUDENTS AT THE UZBEKISTAN STATE UNIVERSITY OF WORLD LANGUAGES

Date: December 5, 2022

This report outlines the availability and implementation of support schemes for low-income students at the Uzbekistan State University of World Languages (UzSWLU). UzSWLU is a higher education institution welcoming students from various foreign countries, including Tajikistan, Turkmenistan, Kyrgyzstan. To ensure access to education and provide assistance to students with low or below-average income, the university offers various financial support measures.

Support Schemes for Low-Income Students

- Free Education: UzSWLU offers free education to students from foreign countries, including Tajikistan, Turkmenistan, Kyrgyzstan, provided they successfully pass the competitive selection process.
- Grants: UzSWLU also provides grants and scholarships on a competitive basis for low-income students. These scholarships may cover part or all of the costs of tuition and accommodation.
- Additional Financial Benefits: For students needing further assistance, UzSWLU offers financial benefits to cover tuition and dormitory costs. These measures help reduce the financial burden on students.

Current Situation

As of today, 48 students from the mentioned foreign countries are studying at UzSWLU, benefiting from the support schemes listed above. They have access to free education or grants depending on their financial circumstances. Additional financial benefits are also provided to those students who face challenges in covering tuition and dormitory expenses.

Conclusion

UzSWLU provides support schemes for low-income students, including international students, to ensure they have access to higher education. These measures contribute to diverse forms of financial support, fostering inclusivity and accessibility in education for a diverse student audience.

Head of International Relations Department

X. Alimova