REGARDING DETERMINATION OF AMOUNTS OF SCHOLARSHIPS TO BE PAID TO STUDENTS OF UzSWLU AND MEASURES TO IMPROVE THE PROCEDURE OF APPOINTMENT AND PAYMENT OF SCHOLARSHIPS

In implementation of the decision of the President of the Republic of Uzbekistan "On the parameters of the state order for admission to higher education institutions of the Republic of Uzbekistan in the 2019/2020 academic year" No. PQ-4359 of June 17, 2019, and in order to further improve the procedure for awarding and paying scholarships to students of UzSWLU, the Cabinet of Ministers decides to allocate scholarships to talented students.

The mission of the Student Financial Aid Group at UzSWLU is to provide financial assistance and support to students at all levels of study, from bachelor to doctorate levels.

In addition, the scholarship allocation policy at UzSWLU supports both undergraduate and graduate students, ensuring they have access to educational opportunities. By adhering to the policy of addressing the financial needs of students, UzSWLU allocates various types of scholarships to support students. Both general and specific scholarships are organized by the university in collaboration with companies, aiming to develop highly desirable graduates in line with the institution's vision.

Support Programs for Low-Income Students at Uzbekistan State University of World Languages in 2023: Scholarships, Competitions, and Extracurricular Initiatives

Uzbekistan State World Languages University has implemented various programs and initiatives to support students from socially vulnerable groups, including those from low-income households, to help them successfully complete their studies. These initiatives include financial rewards and scholarships aimed at fostering students' academic achievements, extracurricular engagement, and overall success.

Evidence: As evidence, we can provide the university rector's order dated December 6, 2022 (No. 383), based on the Cabinet of Ministers of Uzbekistan Resolution No. 310 dated June 7, 2022, and joint resolutions by the Ministry of Culture and the Ministry of Higher and Secondary Specialized Education. According to this order, the university allocates funds from the Student Encouragement Fund to provide financial support and awards to winners of the "Best Student Theater Studios" competition. For instance, members of the "Diydor" theater group, which won first place, received a financial reward of 1,000,000 UZS.

Additional initiatives include the Aleksandr Faynberg Special Scholarship, which awards students who are actively engaged in studying the life and contributions of Aleksandr Faynberg and who promote literature and academic achievements. This scholarship is awarded annually to students demonstrating excellence in related activities.

Moreover, the Rector's Scholarship is awarded to students who have achieved outstanding academic success and leadership. Alongside these scholarships, the university encourages student engagement through extracurricular programs such as the "Zakovat" Intellectual Club, which promotes critical thinking and teamwork through intellectual competitions, and the Rector's Cup, a series of sports tournaments held in various sports. These competitions provide students with a platform to develop their physical and cognitive skills, further contributing to their holistic growth and supporting their successful completion of university.

These initiatives collectively foster an environment of support and encouragement, ensuring students are empowered academically, culturally, and socially, which facilitates their educational success and helps them reach graduation.

Promoting Healthy Families: A Round Table Discussion at Uzbekistan State Transport University

A roundtable discussion was organized at the Uzbekistan State World Languages University in collaboration with the chairpersons of the women's councils to promote the establishment of healthy families, the birth of healthy children, and proper upbringing practices, particularly among women and young couples preparing for marriage.

During the event, gynecologist Z. Tog'aymurodova provided valuable insights on "Enhancing Women's Reproductive Health and Raising Medical Awareness." Her presentation aimed to inform participants about critical aspects of reproductive health, encouraging attendees to engage in discussions about their health and well-being.

At the conclusion of the event, the female students had the opportunity to ask the qualified doctor questions, receiving expert advice on various concerns regarding their reproductive health and family planning.

This initiative aligns with the broader goals of improving public health education and ensuring that women are equipped with the knowledge necessary for making informed decisions about their health. Such activities are crucial in raising awareness and fostering a culture of health within communities.

For more information on similar initiatives, you can refer to the World Health Organization's report on social determinants of health.

For 2023, Uzbekistan State World Languages University (UzSWLU) has participated in policy-making efforts at both regional and national levels to address poverty. This participation is part of its commitment to support the United Nations' Sustainable Development Goals (SDGs), particularly the goal to end poverty in all its forms. One specific piece of evidence that demonstrates this involvement is the university's report on its educational outreach and scholarship programs. These programs target economically disadvantaged youth, providing vocational training, language courses, and financial support to enhance employability and economic stability. The document includes details about partnerships with local government bodies to create employment pathways for low-income students through training and skill development programs, which align with national poverty reduction strategies. This report can serve as tangible evidence of UzSWLU's contributions and proactive measures to influence and support poverty alleviation policies in Uzbekistan.

A job fair organized by the Tashkent City Prosecutor's Office was recently held in Tashkent's Japanese Garden to support student employment. This fair offered students from various universities, including the Uzbekistan State World Languages University (UzSWLU), an opportunity to connect with potential employers across sectors like preschools, general education schools, and other institutions. During the event, students engaged with representatives, explored available positions, and received guidance on building career paths. Many students, including 63 who successfully secured jobs, received certificates for participating in the fair, highlighting the value of such initiatives in fostering practical experience and professional growth for young graduates in Uzbekistan.
