

HEALTHY AND AFFORDABLE FOOD CHOICES

SDG 2 Zero Hunger | Reporting year 2025

1. Policy basis

The UzSWLU Sustainable Food Policy (policy document) sets the University's requirements for healthy and affordable food on campus. Section 6 requires core meal prices to be kept affordable for students and staff, every outlet to offer a low-cost set meal each day, price lists to be displayed clearly, and price changes by contracted operators to be agreed in advance with the University. Section 5 requires menus to favor fresh, seasonal produce, to limit excessive salt, sugar and fat, and to label dishes so that customers can make informed choices. Safe drinking water is available free of charge in dining areas.

2. Standing Commission for Monitoring Paid Service Outlets

Prices, food quality and hygiene in the canteens, buffets and retail outlets on University premises are monitored by a Standing Commission established on 24 January 2025 (Trade Union Committee, Minutes No. 73). The Commission is led by the Deputy Chairman of the Trade Union Committee and includes the Head of the Medical Unit, the Chief Auditor, the leader of the Youth Union and the Head of Internal Control, so that students' and staff interests, health and financial oversight are all represented. Its main tasks are to:

- optimize prices;
- continuously monitor the hygienic condition of canteens, buffets and retail outlets;
- check the quality of meals prepared in the student canteen and prepare proposals for improvement;
- monitor the proper storage of food supplies in designated places;
- regularly review menu cost calculations.

The composition and tasks of the Commission are given in Annex A.

3. Healthy menu at affordable prices

The Student Canteen offers a weekly vegetarian menu of breakfast, lunch and dinner six days a week, based on vegetables, legumes, whole grains, porridges, soups and seasonal produce such as pumpkin, eggplant, squash and cauliflower, with vegan dishes marked on the menu. Prices range from 9,000 to 12,000 UZS for breakfast, 15,000 to 20,000 UZS for lunch and 18,000 to 22,000 UZS for dinner. The full menu with prices is given in Annex B.
