Note: 1. 1 credit equals 30 academic hours. 2. The maximum weekly classroom workload is 24 hours.

3. When drawing up the working curriculum on the basis of the curriculum, while maintaining the weekly volume of students' workload, the volume of the subject blocks may be changed by up to 5%, and the volume of subjects within the blocks by up to 10%; and, while maintaining the overall volume of classroom workload, the weekly workload volume for certain semesters may be freely determined.

4. Elective subjects are taught only where at least one academic group has been formed. The number of subjects proposed for elective subjects should not exceed three; the lecture, practical, seminar and laboratory hours are selected based on the nature of the subjects.

5. Changes may be made to elective subjects on the basis of a decision of the University Council, taking into account the requirements of personnel-ordering organizations.

6. Practical classes in specialty subjects included in the curriculum are conducted at the higher education institution as well as at base organizations and institutions. 7. The GPA indicator is determined in the third week of August.

8. The period of the final state attestation also includes the defense of the graduation qualification thesis. Students not recommended for the defense of the graduation qualification thesis shall sit the state examination.

Note:

1. 1 credit equals 30 academic hours.
2. The maximum weekly classroom workload is 24 hours.
3. When drawing up the working curriculum on the basis of the curriculum, while maintaining the weekly volume of students' workload, the volume of the subject blocks may be changed by up to 5%, and the volume of subjects within the blocks by up to 10%; and, while maintaining the overall volume of classroom workload, the weekly workload volume for certain semesters may be freely determined.
4. Elective subjects are taught only where at least one academic group has been formed. The number of subjects proposed for elective subjects should not exceed three; the lecture, practical, seminar and laboratory hours are selected based on the nature of the subjects.
5. Changes may be made to elective subjects on the basis of a decision of the University Council, taking into account the requirements of personnel-ordering organizations.
6. Practical classes in specialty subjects included in the curriculum are conducted at the higher education institution as well as at base organizations and institutions.
7. The GPA indicator is determined in the third week of August.
8. The period of the final state attestation also includes the defense of the graduation qualification thesis. Students not recommended for the defense of the graduation qualification thesis shall sit the state examination.
