Public Access to Buildings and Heritage of Cultural Significance

SDG 11 Sustainable Cities and Communities | Reporting year 2025

Uzbekistan State World Languages University (UzSWLU) traces its history to the Tashkent Pedagogical Institute of Foreign Languages, founded in 1949, and has been one of the country's main centers of foreign-language education for more than seven decades. The University opens its buildings of cultural significance, its museum and its public spaces to school pupils, residents, researchers and visitors, and it takes part in the care and public use of the Writers' Alley (Adiblar xiyoboni), one of Tashkent's main literary heritage landscapes.

University museum and Information Resource Center

The University museum, located in the Information Resource Center, presents the history of foreign-language education in Uzbekistan through institutional archives, photographs, publications and artifacts. Together with the Information Resource Center, it is shown to every organized group that visits the campus. No admission fee is charged. In 2025 the museum received, among others:

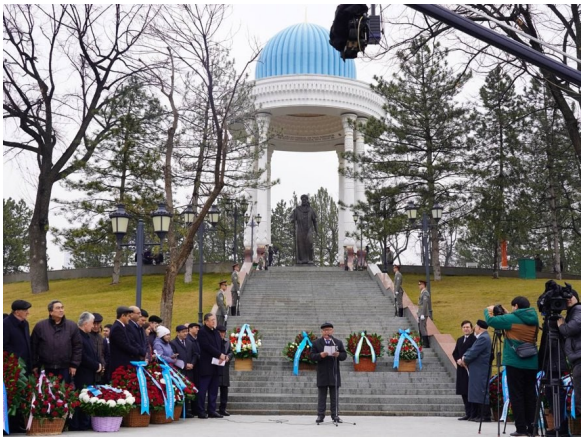

- pupils of School No. 8 of Akkurgan district, Tashkent region (7 February);
- a delegation of the German Academic Exchange Service (DAAD) and German universities (20 February);
- pupils of School No. 40 with in-depth language study, Khojaobod district, Andijan region (27 March);
- graduating pupils of Tashkent schools at an open day (24 October);
- pupils of the "Al Aziz Academy" of Yangiyul city (6 November) and members of the Writers' Union of Uzbekistan (7 November);
- pupils of School No. 134 of Olmazor district (18 December).

Pupils from Khojaobod district, Andijan region, visit the University museum, 27 March 2025

Writers' Alley (Adiblar xiyoboni)

UzSWLU holds regular free public events at the Writers' Alley in Tashkent, where monuments to the classics of Uzbek and world literature stand, including the monument to the poet Alexander Faynberg. On 9 February 2025 the University leadership, students and figures of culture and arts laid flowers at the monument to Alisher Navoi on his 584th anniversary and read from his poetry. On 14 May students presented the traditions of Surkhandarya region at the "National Values Festival" held at the alley, and throughout October and November the faculties held literary and educational events there, including programs dedicated to the state language and to the memory of Alexander Faynberg.

UzSWLU at the Writers' Alley on the 584th anniversary of Alisher Navoi, 9 February 2025

Supporting evidence

- Visit of pupils from Khojaobod district: https://t.me/UzSWLU/31964
- Visit of the DAAD delegation: https://t.me/UzSWLU/30326
- Open day for graduating pupils: https://t.me/UzSWLU/44041
- Visit of members of the Writers' Union: https://t.me/UzSWLU/45112
- Visit of pupils of School No. 134: https://t.me/UzSWLU/48633
- Alisher Navoi anniversary at the Writers' Alley: https://t.me/UzSWLU/29705
- National Values Festival at the Writers' Alley: https://t.me/UzSWLU/34575