Public Access to Museums, Exhibition Spaces and Works of Art

SDG 11 Sustainable Cities and Communities | Reporting year 2025

Uzbekistan State World Languages University (UzSWLU) gives the public free access to its museum, its pottery studio and gallery, and the exhibitions held in its buildings.

University museum

The University museum, part of the Information Resource Center, displays archives, photographs, publications and artifacts on the history of foreign-language education in Uzbekistan. It is open free of charge to organized groups of school pupils, delegations and visitors, and is included in the open days the University holds for prospective students and their parents. In 2025 visitors included school groups from Tashkent city, Tashkent region and Andijan region, members of the Writers' Union of Uzbekistan and international delegations.

KulolMan pottery studio and gallery

The KulolMan spin-off on the University campus is a working pottery studio and gallery that displays ceramics made in the traditions of Uzbek pottery. It is shown to visitors as part of campus tours and hosts master classes for students and guests. On 16 May 2025 international students attended the "National Values" exhibition of Uzbek pottery, where master potters explained the craft, the techniques of working with clay and national ornaments.
