UZBEKISTAN STATE WORLD LANGUAGES UNIVERSITY

Co-operative Planning for Climate Change Disasters

SDG 13 Climate Action | Reporting year 2025

Uzbekistan State World Languages University (UzSWLU) plans and trains for natural disasters and emergencies together with the Ministry of Emergency Situations, and its facilities have served the state emergency response. Its Department of Civil and Labor Protection works with the Ministry's Academy, its Tashkent City Department and its Uchtepa district department.

Joint exercises with the Ministry of Emergency Situations

- 21 February 2025: a practical and tactical exercise with the civil protection units of the University and the district emergency services, with officers of the Tashkent City Department and the Uchtepa district department, rehearsed eliminating the consequences of a simulated emergency, first aid for casualties and the evacuation of people to safety.
- 11 April 2025: during the Month of Protection from Emergencies and Civil Protection, the Ministry's Academy, its Tashkent City Department and the Uchtepa district department held an awareness meeting with students and cadets and a demonstration with special equipment on civil protection during natural disasters and fires.
- 10 September 2025: an evening training exercise in a student dormitory with the Uchtepa district emergency department and organizations of the district emergency subsystem covered evacuation, first aid and the use of firefighting equipment.

University facilities in emergencies

During the COVID-19 pandemic, University student dormitories were used as quarantine zones as part of the national emergency response, showing that University residential facilities can be placed at the disposal of the state in an emergency.

Support for displaced people

Teachers of the Department of Arabic Translation provide interpretation and language support for Palestinian citizens evacuated from Gaza to Uzbekistan under the state humanitarian program. In 2025 their work was recognized by the Embassy of the State of Palestine and by the University.
