Law and rights protection	Round table "We are against violence!"	Deputies of the Legislative Chamber, Uchtepa District Council deputies, Ministry of Internal Affairs

Climate change and environmental policy

On 30–31 May 2025, UzSWLU's Department of Political Sciences held the international scientific and practical conference "Modern Environmental Policy: From National Experience to Global Solutions". The conference was opened by the Vice-Rector for Scientific Affairs and Innovation, who reviewed Uzbekistan's environmental reforms and the environmental priorities of the "Uzbekistan–2030" strategy, including reducing greenhouse gas emissions, developing green energy and introducing water-saving technologies.

Speakers included academics from the University of World Economy and Diplomacy, the director of the SCO Public Diplomacy Center and a representative of the Aral Sea International Innovation Center, together with experts from York University (Canada), RISEBA University (Latvia), Osh State University (Kyrgyzstan), Kazakhstan and India. Four sections addressed international environmental cooperation, environmental policy and economic relations, environmental literacy and the legal foundations of environmental policy. Representatives of ministries and agencies took part alongside scholars and students, and the program reviewed the state program for the Year of Environmental Protection and the Green Economy, the "Uzbekistan–2030" strategy, the Samarkand climate forum, COP28 and the agenda of the 150th Assembly of the Inter-Parliamentary Union. The conference concluded with proposals on mitigating environmental risks, strengthening international cooperation and developing innovative solutions.

Public administration and socio-economic development

UzSWLU Rector Ilkhomjon Tukhtasinov took part, as a representative of the Ministry of Higher Education, Science and Innovation, in training and practical seminars for deputy district and city khokims, heads of organizational and personnel groups and candidates in the national personnel reserve in Andijan and Namangan regions. The seminars were designed to develop the knowledge and skills needed to organize local government and work with the population, and the Namangan program covered regional socio-economic development programs, work in neighborhoods, youth policy, entrepreneurship development, resolving the problems of the population and the green economy.

Law and the protection of rights

In cooperation with the Central Apparatus of the Social Democratic Party of Uzbekistan "Adolat", UzSWLU held the round table "We are against violence!" for deputies of the Legislative Chamber of the Oliy Majlis, officials of the Committee on Family and Women's Affairs and the Ministry of Internal Affairs, and deputies of the Uchtepa District Council of People's Deputies. Together with UzSWLU professors, participants examined reforms to protect women from violence, the Law "On Protection of Women from Harassment and Violence", legal measures against violence and the use of protection orders, and agreed to strengthen preventive work in communities and intensify awareness campaigns.
